

Saturday 5 October
10 am - 3.30 pm
All Saints, Lindfield

A day for clergy, lay worship leaders, musicians and singers and indeed anyone interested in music and worship. This will be a practical and visionary day relevant to the worship and music of every local church. The content will be based on material from the RSCM publication Inspiring Music in Worship: A short course of guided conversations for churches with plenty of examples and resources to take away.

The day will be led by the author, Revd Helen Bent, Head of Ministerial Training for RSCM in partnership with Praxis. Helen is now working on Inspiring Music in Worship book 2 for the rural church, so she will be using exercises and samples from both books.

Inspiring Music in Worship encourages parishes to make the best use of music to enhance their worship, even when they have few resources. Grounded in real-life case studies, the day will provide an opportunity to discover new riches whilst acknowledging the tensions of traditional and contemporary forms of worship.

The book on which the day is based, Inspiring Music in Worship, is usually priced at £5.99, but will be available on the day for £4.50.
