Preaching in a Scientific Age

10.30-13.00

£7. Led by Revd Jennifer Brown, Director of Training for the College of Preachers and former Science Missioner in the Diocese of Oxford

Science & technology are central to our lives and there are many who believe that science and religious faith are incompatible - that we can believe one or the other but not both. This workshop will explore how we can use our preaching to dispel this myth, help people to discover the truth of scripture in an age of science and equip our congregations to bring Christian values to discussions about how science & technology are used in society.

Modern Approaches to the Eucharist: beyond "Catholic and Protestant"

13.00-15.00

Led by Revd Dr Earl Collins

The 20th century witnessed a remarkable renewal of eucharistic theology and practice in the Western Church.

Old divisions between Catholics and Protestants began to be transcended. Yet even today clichés and misunderstandings can dominate discussion of the Eucharist.

Since the Church of England aims to hold together positions too frequently split asunder, this workshop will describe the gains of 20th century eucharistic renewal (embodied in Common Worship, Holy Communion) and discuss how contemporary eucharistic spirituality testifies to the work of Christ and the Spirit in worship and mission.

Preaching on Mark's Gospel through Lent

13.00-14.00. Led by Revd Dr Ian Paul. Dr Paul is a writer, blogger, and theologian. He is also the Managing Editor at Grove Books.

How can we draw on Mark's portrayal of Jesus' temptation and passion to capture the essence of the season of Lent, share the Good News, and encourage congregations to faithful discipleship? In this workshop, we'll explore what Mark's Gospel says about Jesus' 40 days in the wilderness at the start of his ministry - those days echoed in the 40 days of Lent - together with the story of his passion and how we can retell this story in the context of our lives today to point people towards the hope and joy of Easter.

What is the current view of Priesthood in the Church of England?

10.00-12.00

Free

Led by Revd Dr Earl Collins

The Ordinal is the touchstone for ministerial understanding in the Church of England.

This workshop will consider the historical evolution of priestly ordination and how that ministry relates to the priestly ministry of the whole Church. Terminology (priest or presbyter, sacrament or ministry?) and the concept of “validity” will be discussed.

It will demonstrate that the Ordinal offers a theologically balanced, biblically based understanding of ordained priestly ministry rooted in the earliest traditions of the Church.

The Dark Night of the Soul - exploring its imagery in prayer and theology

Free. 13.30-15.30. Led by Revd Dr Earl Collins

Darkness and light have always been governing images in the Christian spiritual tradition – from Moses ascending Mt Sinai to Christ's transfiguration on Mt Tabor. Exploring the use of dark and light imagery in prayer and theology, and drawing on the Bible and the Christian mystics, we will consider such topics as "the dark night of the soul", the difference between spiritual darkness and depression, developing "a sense" for God and what to do in prayer when one's inner lights go out.

Wells in the Wilderness

BRF's Virtual women's day

10.00—15.00

Led by Amy Boucher-Pye, Catherine Butcher, Mags Duggan, Claire Musters and Rachel Turner

Cost: £15. Tickets are inclusive of a £7.50 voucher to spend on a book of your choice at brfonline.org.uk

Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.
See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up;
do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland. Isaiah 43:18–19

For the first time ever, BRF's annual women's conference will take place online. The theme, Wells in the Wilderness, is inspired by the promises in Isaiah 43:18–19 and five popular, thought-provoking speakers will explore the different ways in which God provides refreshment in the wilderness.

There will be uplifting worship and opportunities to connect with women of all ages, from every corner of the country and beyond.

Running an Efficient PCC

Free. 10.00-12.00 Led by Revd Rob Dillingham

PCC's matter. They matter a lot. A healthy and functioning PCC enables a church to focus on what matters most. But such PCC's don't just happen, they come about through thoughtful, loving and creative leadership. This course is designed to enable an incumbent to run an efficient PCC, so the PCC may help the church fulfil the mission and ministry in that place.

Julian of Norwich: A Visionary of Love

Free. 10.00-12.00.

Led by Revd Dr Earl Collins

Unknown for centuries, Julian of Norwich (1343 AD-c.1416) has rapidly become one of the most cherished Christian visionaries.

Rowan Williams has called her, "...a theologian of extraordinary intuitive resource."

In her Revelations of Divine Love, the first surviving book written in English by a woman, Julian set out the meaning of her visions. Imaginatively representing traditional ideas and images, the visions revealed her overriding vision: God's absolute love for all.

This workshop, in addition to offering an introduction to her life and work, will consider three major topics: her vision of Christ crucified, her meditations on the Holy Trinity, and her unique understanding of prayer. We will read together short excerpts of her work and explore what she can say to us as contemporary Christians.

Trauma-informed Ministry, delivered by the Tragedy and Congregations Team

Free. 20 places.

9.30-12.45

Led by Revd Dr Carla Grosch-Miller, Revd Hilary Ison and Professor Christopher Southgate

Since 2017 the team has delivered over 70 training days and Zoom courses in various settings for Anglican, Methodist and URC groups, providing a range of resources as the COVID crisis has unfolded.

We offer half-day Zoom meetings with groups of 12 ministers. These will provide:

- opportunities to articulate experience of the COVID crisis
- a chance to make connections between these reactions and trauma theory
- explorations of the dynamics of communities after a tragedy
- biblical resources for addressing our current situation

To see more of the group's work, look at the project book Tragedies and Christian Congregations: a practical theology of trauma (Routledge, 2019). The e-book is available for around £30.

All for Jesus Retreat 2022, led by John-Francis SMMS

App. £175 pp (en-suite) or £160 (shared facilities).

Park Place Pastoral Centre, Wickham, Hants, PO17 5HA

Building on themes addressed in Enfolded in Christ – the inner life of a priest, this silent, preached Retreat will explore the mystery of the Eucharist and how we can deepen our faith in Christ's transforming presence. There will be a celebration of the Eucharist and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for shared silent prayer each day, but no expectation that you should take part – just a hope you will find these of help.

The Retreat, which has been postponed from 2021 due to the pandemic, will be conducted by John-Francis SMMS who was an Anglican Franciscan for 25 years and then a parish priest until 2011. He trained on the Ignatian Spirituality Course and began teaching at the London Centre for Spiritual Direction where he continues to work both as a spiritual director and pastoral supervisor. When invited he exercises a priestly ministry and retains ties with the Franciscans and is also author of The Mystery of Faith: Exploring Christian belief, published in 2019 by Canterbury Press.

Inspiring Music in Worship Online for Course Facilitators – RSCM

Monday Evenings: 18 Jan, 25 Jan, 1 Feb, 8 Feb, 15 Feb, 19.00 - 21.00 (GMT)

Led by the author, the Revd Helen Bent, RSCM Head of Ministerial Training in partnership with Praxis

Cost: £50-00 (RSCM members) £60-00 (non-members)

Cost includes a copy of the Inspiring Music in Worship book and discount voucher for bulk buys

Inspiring Music in Worship could be just what is needed to harness the creative flexibility and imagination that has been generated through worshipping under Covid-19 restrictions. Are you asking some of the following questions, as you look to the future?

- How does our worship need to look when Covid-19 is over?
- How do we avoid a slide back into the “same old same old” and embrace healthy ongoing change and development?
- How can we intentionally inspire and refresh congregational singing after a long abstinence?
- How can we shape the ‘new normal’ to include both face-to-face and virtual expressions of worship?
- What can we be doing now to pave the way for the ‘new normal’?

This five-session online course during January and early February is for potential group facilitators to become familiar with the IMiW material and how to use it with their own church in our present situation. It could then provide an imaginative alternative course for Lent to share with the choir, the music group, or the whole congregation.

IMiW itself is a conversational tool for everyone, not only musicians, using guided discussions, Bible readings and tasks to help to explore differences of tradition and style with honesty and mutual respect. Everyone has valid views and experiences, which increase ownership and make the ongoing journey of worship into an exciting adventure.

Format of each session:

How Clergy Thrive – resource downloadable from the CofE website

Wellbeing is a complex area and sometimes it can be difficult to know where to start.

Here you can find resources emerging from the Living Ministry research to use for personal reflection and in discussion with others. Designed specifically for ordinands, clergy, senior clergy and diocesan officers, they will help you think about your own wellbeing and how you support the wellbeing of others, and point you in the direction of further sources of support.

Based on the Living Ministry research, Dr. Liz Graveling has written this booklet as a tool both for clergy reflecting on their own wellbeing and for those with responsibility for supporting the wellbeing of others. It is published by Church House Publishing.

Downloadable worksheets:

- Questions for reflection for Clergy
- Questions for reflection for Senior Clergy and Diocesan Officers
- Six Ways Clergy Can thrive

Wellbeing for Clergy and Families

“In my experience the journey of ministry can be joyful and fulfilling but can also be stormy, scary and turbulent. Clergy, their partners and their families at times walk on a very real tightrope, with many demands upon us. There will be times for all of us when we need pastoral care and support” Archdeacon Fiona.

The Diocese of Chichester is committed to promoting and sustaining the Wellbeing of our clergy and their families.

Nicola Canham, Head of Wellbeing for Clergy and their Families (WCF), is employed by the DOC to provide the WCF services for clergy and their families.

We provide Reflective Practice Groups (RPG’s), counselling for clergy, couples and families, de-briefing sessions for clergy after a traumatic event, psychoeducational groups e.g. anxiety and depression, stress management and wellbeing activities e.g. Christian mindfulness.

Safeguarding for Clergy and Parish

The hub for all information, resources, news and events relating to safeguarding children and adults throughout the life of the Diocese. It also introduces a new tool - 'Safer Quality Protects' - which will help parishes to assess and improve their own safeguarding practice, whilst providing useful resources to enable them to achieve this goal.

Safeguarding is a complex area of church life - how do we keep children and adults safe from harm, whilst building communities of trust and openness, and still demonstrate the welcome the Gospel offers to all? Moreover, how do we build church communities that obey the biblical mandate to defend those who are weak, heal those who are hurt, and demonstrate God's forgiveness to all, for all have sinned?

This site is intended to provide people in parishes with a 'one stop shop' for all things safe-guarding.

Chichester University MA in Christian Ministry

3 years, part-time.

The MA in Christian Ministry has been specifically developed to meet the needs of Christian ministers, predominantly those working in local churches. A diverse and exciting range of modules will enhance your theological and ministerial practice.

This course will:

- Enhance and enrich your ministry and practice
- Help you gain new insights for your ministerial practice
- Develop your theological knowledge and expertise
- Enable you to reflect creatively on practical issues and questions
- Give you confidence in your theological skills

For those recommended by their church authorities, the fee is £1,500 per annum for each of the three years.

For those applying from the Diocese of Chichester a fee arrangement is in place which allows students to study for a much reduced rate.

MA Christian Ministry

St Augustine's MA in Theology, Ministry and Mission

The St Augustine's MA in Theology, Ministry and Mission is a specially tailored programme of theological learning and research that allows lay and ordained ministers, as well as church members, to deepen their theological knowledge by building on previous theological learning, engaging with daily life and ongoing experience of the Body of Christ.

Accredited and awarded by Durham University, the degree includes both taught modules and guided research in a theological discipline of your choice. It offers opportunities to develop advanced skills as part of your continuing ministerial development e.g. in pastoral supervision, leadership, mission, spirituality.

The degree can be taken part-time or full-time. Much of the teaching is delivered alongside candidates for church ministry, but the programme is suitable for all, irrespective of any ministerial involvement.

Since the MA aims for a more critical mode of engagement with theology and ministry, the teaching sessions and much of the contact time will take the form of seminars, during which you will discuss texts with teachers and fellow students and present your own work.

The course is designed for lay and ordained ministers, or church members, who wish to deepen their theological knowledge by building on previous theological learning. To undertake the MA, you must have completed either a degree in theology or ministry or a degree in another subject combined with an additional qualification in theology or ministry.
