AUTHORITY OF THESE RULES

The Synodical Government Measures (SGMs) and the Church Representation Rules (CRR) are binding and cannot be varied by diocesan or deanery synods.

These Model Rules have been approved by the diocesan synod which recommends all deanery synods to adopt them. Subject to these rules, a deanery synod may determine its own procedure.

ADOPTION OF THESE RULES BY DEANERIES

To give effect to these rules, each deanery should pass a resolution using the following words:

This deanery synod resolves to adopt the Model Rules for Deanery Synods approved by the diocesan synod at its meeting in November 1993.

OTHER COMMITTEES OF DEANERY SYNODS (RULE 15)

If there are any other deanery synod committees either their constitutions should be attached as an appendix to these rules or reference should be made to the minutes of the meeting of the deanery synod at which the committee was set up.

MEMBERSHIP CRR 19(2)(d)

The diocesan synod has resolved that all clerks in Holy Orders holding the bishop's licence shall be members of the house of clergy of the synod of the deanery in which they reside.

25. Either of the joint chairmen or, with the consent of the standing committee, any other member, may give notice for the agenda of a subject for an address, paper or general discussion without the moving of a formal motion. GENERAL RULES OF DEBATE

36. [Withdrawn June 1985]

Moving instead of another member

37. If the member who gave notice of a motion or amendment, on his name being called, chooses not to move it another member may do so in his stead.

Opportunity for questions

38. Immediately after a motion has been moved the chairman may give members an opportunity to ask questions of the mover or speaker, solely for the purpose of elucidating facts.

One motion at a time

39. During the debate on a motion or amendment no other motion shall be moved except a procedural motion under rule 49 and no other amendment may be moved on the same motion before the prior amendment is decided; provided that the chairman may permit two or more motions or amendments to be discussed but not voted on if circumstances suggest to him that this course would facilitate the proper conduct of the synod's business.

Reconsideration and rescission

40. No motion or amendment to the same effect as or dependent on one which has been rejected within the preceding twelve months and no motion to rescind a resolution passed within the same period shall be proposed without the agreement of the standing committee or the consent of the synod.

Speaking more than once

41. Subject to rule 42, no members shall speak more than once on a motion or amendment under debate except that:
- (i) the mover of a motion shall have a right of reply to the debate on his motion;
 - (ii) a speech on an amendment shall not be deemed a speech on the main motion;
 - (iii) a point of order or a personal explanation may be made at any time whether or not another member is interrupted.

General discussion

42. The chairman may at any time suspend the last preceding rule for so long as he thinks the purposes of the synod would be more usefully served by a general discussion and he may direct that such discussion shall be held in informal groups. A general discussion under this rule shall be conducted in accordance with procedure to be determined by the chairman under rule 68, but no motion or amendment shall be moved or put to the vote during such discussion and the number of speeches made by any member while it continues shall be disregarded for the purpose of rule 41 when that rule is declared by the chairman to be again in force.

Speaking

43. Every speech shall be addressed to the chair and shall be succinct and relevant to the matter under debate.

Length of speeches

44. The chairman may at any time impose a limit of not more than [] minutes on the length of speeches and may vary or revoke such limit; provided that he shall inform members of each ruling which shall not be open to question.

Withdrawal

45. A motion or amendment which has been moved may be withdrawn by the mover with the consent of the synod.

Division of text

- 45A. The chairman may, with the consent of the mover, so divide any motion or amendment as to enable the synod to vote separately upon each part.

47. No amendment shall be moved to:
- (i) a motion to receive the report of a committee;

48. Unless the chairman rules otherwise, amendments shall be moved in the order in which they affect the motion.

PROCEDURAL MOTIONS

Content

49. With the consent of the chairman the following procedural motions may be moved with or without notice, but so as not to interrupt the speech of any member:
- (i) that the synod be now adjourned;
 - (ii) that the debate be now adjourned;
 - (iii) that the synod do now pass to the next business;
 - (iv) that the debate be closed.

51. In the case of the motions mentioned in rule 49 (iii) and (iv):
- (i) such motion shall not be moved on any question referred by the General Synod;
 - (ii) the debate shall be limited to a brief speech by the proposer of not more than two minutes and, unless the chairman permits further speeches, a brief reply by the mover of the original motion or, failing him, one other member.

Amendments and other procedural motions

52. The adjournment or closure may be moved on an amendment or another procedural motion but a motion to pass to the next business shall not be so moved.

Effect of procedural resolutions

53. In the event of any procedural motion being passed, the debate to which it relates shall be closed or stand adjourned, as the case may be, except that in the case of a motion that the debate on a motion be closed the mover thereof shall have a right to reply before the matter is put to the vote.

Adjourning amendments

54. The adjournment of an amendment shall be deemed to adjourn the debate on the original motion.

Resumption of business interrupted

55. Unless otherwise resolved, business interrupted by an adjournment of the synod shall be resumed at the next meeting, and on an adjournment of debate, if and when the standing committee so decides.
56. [Withdrawn June 1985]

VOTING

General

57. Decisions shall be taken by a majority of the members of the synod present and voting, except that a separate vote of each house shall be taken in the following cases:
- (i) if the chairman so rules;

- (ii) if not fewer than five members so request;
- (iii) on any matter referred by the diocesan synod.

Votes by houses

58. On a vote by houses, decisions of the synod shall be taken by a majority of the members of each house present and voting.

Mode of voting

59. Unless otherwise provided in these rules, voting shall be by show of hands without a count, except that:

- (i) the chairman shall order a count on a vote by houses or if a member so requests either before or immediately after the result is announced;
- (ii) the chairman may at his discretion order a count on any other vote.

- 59A. Notwithstanding model rule 59, where a count is required by houses on any mandatory motion referred by the General Synod, and where the standing committee shall have so directed previously to the meeting, a count by ballot shall be ordered. A ballot paper, which shall have been printed with the mandatory motion before the meeting, shall be issued to every member of each house present. These papers shall be collected and counted under arrangements made by the secretary, and the chairman shall announce the results before the end of the meeting. The ballot papers shall be preserved until after the next meeting of the synod.

Recording votes

60. The voting on a vote by houses shall be recorded in the minutes.

REFERENCES BY THE DIOCESAN SYNOD

When considered

61. References by the diocesan synod shall be included in the agenda of such meeting as the standing committee shall consider appropriate.

Prior notice and documents required

62. Unless the standing committee otherwise decides:
- (i) at least 28 days' notice of any matter referred shall be given to every member;
 - (ii) a report or other document prepared by or on behalf of the General Synod, diocesan synod or standing committee shall be circulated.

Procedure of debate

63. (a) When the reference by the diocesan synod is in the form of a question requiring the answer Yes or No, the question shall be put to the deanery synod as a formal motion in the affirmative sense. No amendment shall be in order and a separate vote of each house shall be taken under rule 57. If the motion is defeated, the question shall be decided in the negative.
- (b) When the reference invites a fuller statement of opinion a motion containing a draft of such statement shall be moved on behalf of the standing committee and amendments to such a motion shall be in order.
- (c) When all motions under the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) have been decided, other motions arising therefrom may, if otherwise in order, be moved by any member.

Report on result

64. The decisions (together with the number of votes in each house) on every matter referred and on every additional motion shall be reported by the secretary of the deanery synod to the secretary of the diocesan synod.

Consultations within the deanery

65. Subject to any timetable laid down by the diocesan synod, the deanery synod before voting on a reference may refer any question to the parochial church councils or parochial church meetings in the deanery.

REPORTS BY THE DEANERY SYNOD TO PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCILS

Report of proceedings

66. Within six weeks after a meeting of the deanery synod the secretary shall prepare and circulate to the secretaries of the parochial church councils in the deanery a report approved by the standing committee of the proceedings of that meeting. Such report may be in the form of the minutes.

MATTERS RAISED BY PAROCHIAL CHURCH COUNCILS AND MEETINGS

Mode of representation

67. Any parochial church council or parochial church meeting in the deanery may, on a motion moved by a member representing that parish, bring before the deanery synod any matter either of general Church interest or affecting that parish and may move that a representative of the deanery synod on the diocesan synod be instructed to bring such matter before that synod on behalf of the deanery synod. Subject to any direction by the deanery synod, the standing committee shall appoint such representative.

ADDRESSES, PAPERS AND GENERAL DISCUSSION

Procedure determinable by chairman

68. The chairman presiding shall determine the procedure for any part of a meeting during which the item under consideration is not a motion or amendment but is:
- (i) an address or the presentation of a paper, whether a report or other document, by a member or a visiting speaker;
 - (ii) a general discussion, whether or not introduced by such address or paper, including a discussion permitted by the chairman under rule 42.

FINANCIAL BUSINESS

[Please refer to the Synodical Government Measure 1969 for any functions in relation to finance delegated by the diocesan synod and exercisable by the deanery synod under SGM s4(5) and s5(4)]

Annual review

69. The standing committee shall in each year submit to the synod:
- (i) a report and audited accounts for the preceding financial year;
 - (ii) a statement showing the estimated expenditure of the synod during the next financial year;
 - (iii) proposals for raising the income required to meet such expenditure.

Periods of notice

71. Any period of notice required by these rules shall be deemed to consist of clear days or weeks, not including the date of despatch and the date of the event before which the notice must be delivered.

Procedural defects

72. A meeting of the synod or any of its committees of which the minutes have been approved and signed shall be deemed to have been duly summoned and held notwithstanding any defect in the procedure for summoning or conducting such meeting, and no proceedings thereat shall be invalidated by the accidental omission to give the required notice of the meeting to any member.

Variation of rules made by diocesan synod

73. Any of these rules which have been made by the diocesan synod shall not be varied, revoked or suspended except by a further resolution of that synod.

- (6) The diocesan synod shall exercise their powers under this and the last preceding rule so as to secure that the total number of members of any deanery synod in the diocese shall not be more than 150 and, so far as practicable, shall not be less than 50:

Provided that the maximum number of 150 may be exceeded for the purpose of securing that the house of laity is not less in number than the house of clergy.
