2. THE CHICHESTER DIOCESAN FUND AND BOARD OF FINANCE INCORPORATED

2.1. Introduction

2.1.1. The Chichester Diocesan Fund and Board of Finance Incorporated (“DBF”) is a company limited by guarantee, registered at Companies House with company number 133558, and a charity registered with the Charity Commission with charity number 243134. It is constituted under the Measure of 1925. Its function is to act as the financial executive of the Diocesan Synod and it is responsible for the custody and management of the Synod’s funds and the employment of all persons in receipt of salaries from those funds. It meets at least twice a year at the same time as the Diocesan Synod. Business is transacted by the Finance Committee, dealt with in Part 2 of this Handbook, which acts as a board of directors and the trustees of the charity.

2.2. Terms of Reference

2.2.1. The terms of reference for the DBF are as set out in the company’s Articles of Association as lodged with Companies House. These can be summarised as:

To promote, carry on, assist, benefit and advance the work of the Church of England in the Diocese of Chichester and elsewhere in all or any of its branches or activities, and to establish, set on foot, become a member of, support, aid, take over, take part in, subscribe to, become affiliated with, develop, organise, administer, manage, terminate or reconstruct any association, institution, fund, trust, society, charity, committee, school, object, arrangement or movement intended or calculated in any way to promote, assist, benefit or advance any branch or activity of such work and whether or not in connection with or forming a branch or agency of a like body or organisation existing or carrying on work wholly or partly outside the Diocese.

2.3. Membership

2.3.1. All such persons as are members of the Diocesan Synod.

2.4. Officers

2.4.1. As set out in Article 38, namely:

- President: the Bishop
- Vice-Presidents: Suffragan Bishops, Archdeacons, and Chairs of Houses of Clergy and Laity
- Secretary: Diocesan Secretary

2.5. Special provisions

2.5.1. The proceedings of the DBF are regulated by the Articles of Association, and any inconsistent provisions of Part 7 of this Handbook do not apply. In particular, the quorum is as set out in Article 20(2), namely 50 members present in person or by proxy.

PART I: PRINCIPAL BODIES

3. DIOCESAN PARSONAGES BOARD

3.1. Introduction

3.1.1. The Parsonages Board is a statutory committee. Under the scheme made by the Diocesan Synod on 25 April 2015, its functions are delegated to one or more sub-committees (to be known as the Parsonages and Houses Committees) of the Finance Committee, dealt with in Part 5 of this Handbook.

3.2. Terms of Reference

3.2.1. To carry out the functions of the Parsonages Board as laid down by the Repair of Benefice Buildings Measure 1972 and extended by a scheme made by the Diocesan Synod on 25 April 2015 in the following ways:

3.2.1.1. The Board is authorised to execute works of improvement, demolition or erection of parsonage houses in pursuance of the powers conferred by sections 1, 2 and 2A of the Parsonages Measure 1938 by agreement with the persons on whom those powers are conferred

3.2.1.2. The Board may direct a diocesan surveyor to inspect buildings in the diocese (other than parsonage houses) used as residences by clergy or lay workers in the Church of England and to report to the Board on such inspections

3.2.1.3. The Board is authorised to execute works of repair, improvement, demolition or erection of any buildings in the diocese held for charitable purposes connected with the Church of England, by agreements with the persons having the management or control of such buildings

3.2.1.4. In paragraphs 3.2.1.1 to 3.2.1.3 above, references to parsonage houses and to buildings used or held for certain purposes shall include references, where appropriate, to buildings intended to be used as parsonage houses or to be used or held for those purposes

3.2.2. To carry out the functions of the Parsonages Board under any other legislation, as summarised in the Church Commissioners Diocesan Parsonages and Glebe Manual

3.3. Membership

3.3.1. The members of the DBF, pursuant to a scheme designating the DBF as the Parsonages Board made by the Diocesan Synod on 25 April 2015

PART 2: PRINCIPAL COMMITTEES

4. BISHOP'S COUNCIL AND STANDING COMMITTEE OF DIOCESAN SYNOD

4.1. Introduction

4.1.1. The Bishop's Council and Standing Committee of the Diocesan Synod is established under the Standing Orders as required by rule 34(k) of the Church Representation Rules. In accordance with section 4(4) of the Synodical Government Measure, it discharges the advisory and consultative functions of Synod but it or the Bishop may require any matter to be referred to Synod. It meets at least four times a year. For ease of reference, the Council, the Finance Committee and the Mission and Pastoral Committee are referred to together as "the Executive".

4.2. Terms of Reference

4.2.1. As set out in Standing Order 75, namely:

- to plan the business of the Synod, to prepare the agenda for its sessions, and to circulate to members information about matters for discussion;
- to initiate proposals for action by the Synod and to advise it on matters of policy which are placed before it;
- to advise the President on any matters which he or she may refer to the Committee;
- subject to the directions of the Synod to transact the business of the Synod when it is not in session;
- to appoint members of committees or nominate members for election to committees, subject to the directions of the Synod;
- to carry out such other functions as the Synod may delegate to it.

4.3. Membership

4.3.1. As set out in Standing Order 72, namely:

- The Diocesan and Suffragan Bishops
- The Dean of Chichester
- The Archdeacons
- The Chair and Deputy Chair of the Finance Committee
- The Chairs of the House of Clergy and the House of Laity
- The Dean of Women's Ministry
- The Dean of Self-Supporting Ministry
- One member of the House of Clergy and two members of the House of Laity from each Archdeaconry (elected by and from the members of the Diocesan Synod of the relevant House and Archdeaconry)
- Up to three members of Diocesan Synod (of which no more than one shall be in Holy Orders) co-opted by the Bishop after consultation with the Chairs of the House of Clergy and the House of Laity plus an additional lay person co-opted by the Bishop in the event that a person who was, immediately prior to the appointment, a member of the

PART 7: INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

22. INTERPRETATION AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 22.1. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, members of the various committees hold office for a period of three years (one synodical triennium) and may be re-elected without limit.
- 22.2. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, elections to the various committees by the Diocesan Synod shall take place as soon as practicable after the election of a new Synod and those elected shall assume office on the following 1st January in accordance with Standing Orders 81-85.
- 22.3. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, elected members shall be elected by means of a “first past the post” system.
- 22.4. Unless different provision is made by statute, if a casual vacancy on any committee or subcommittee shall occur between elections the Executive may make an appointment to fill the casual vacancy.
- 22.5. Any person elected or chosen to fill a casual vacancy shall hold office only for the unexpired portion of the term of office of the person in whose place he or she is elected or chosen.
- 22.6. Unless specifically stated to the contrary, one third of the members of any committee shall constitute a quorum and votes shall pass by a simple majority of members present and voting (with the Chair having a second or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes).
- 22.7. Officers shall not be voting members unless they are also members of the relevant committee.
- 22.8. At least four working days before any meeting of any committee or subcommittee a notice specifying all the business to be transacted shall be sent by post or email to every member of the respective committee. No business shall be transacted other than that which appears on the notice other than by leave of the Chair presiding at the meeting with the consent of the majority of the members present.
- 22.9. Minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of committees shall be kept and once signed by the Chair shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.
- 22.10. Committees may conduct business by video or telephone conferencing. Any member is entitled to require any matter to be considered at a face to face meeting or by email instead.
- 22.11. Committees may conduct business by email and votes shall pass by a simple majority of members entitled to vote (with the Chair having a second or casting vote in the case of an equality of votes). Any member is entitled to require the matter to be considered at a meeting instead. Any proposal approved by email must be minuted at the next meeting.
- 22.12. Non-members of Committees including Diocesan Officers and external advisers may be in attendance as required or invited.
- 22.13. No expenditure may be incurred by any committee except in accordance with a budget previously agreed with the Finance Committee.
- 22.14. Any committee may review and overturn the decisions of any of its subcommittees.
- 22.15. Subject to the foregoing provisions, and to any directions given by the Executive, each committee shall have power to regulate its own procedure.

APPENDIX 2

1. General duty

It shall be the duty of any person or body carrying out functions under the Mission and Pastoral Measure 2011 to have due regard to the furtherance of the mission of the Church of England.

2. Functions of the Committee

It shall be the duty of the Mission And Pastoral Committee:

- (a) to make or assist in making better provision for the cure of souls in the diocese as a whole and, to the extent that the Committee thinks appropriate, in particular parts of the diocese or in particular parishes;
- (b) from time to time, as the Bishop may direct, or as the Committee thinks fit, to review arrangements for pastoral supervision and care in the diocese as a whole and, to the extent that the Committee thinks appropriate, in particular parts of the diocese or in particular parishes (including sharing agreements in respect of a church or parsonage house and any proposals for sharing agreements);
- (c) from time to time, as the Bishop may direct, or as the Committee thinks fit, to prepare strategies or proposals for carrying out the Committee's functions under paragraphs (a) and (b) above for submission to the Bishop and the Diocesan Synod for their approval;
- (d) to maintain an overview of matters relating to church buildings in the diocese and their use, other than matters which are within the jurisdiction of the consistory court or within the functions of the Diocesan Advisory Committee;
- (e) in the case of listed buildings or buildings in a conservation area, to make every endeavour to find a suitable alternative use or suitable alternative uses for churches which are proposed to be closed and buildings which have been closed for regular public worship in the diocese under a pastoral church buildings scheme and, in the case of any other such building, to develop proposals for the suitable alternative use or uses of the building or for the demolition of the building and the disposal of its site;
- (f) where it considers it desirable, to make recommendations to the Bishop in accordance with section 6 or 21 of the 2011 Measure for any of the matters for which provision may be made under that Measure (other than section 50) by a pastoral scheme or order; and

- (g) to carry out any other functions conferred upon a mission and pastoral committee of a diocese by any enactment.

3. Carrying out the Committee's functions

In carrying out any of its functions the Mission And Pastoral Committee shall have regard to:

- (a) the financial implications for the diocese and the Church of England as a whole;
- (b) the need to allocate appropriate spheres of work and to ensure that appropriate conditions of service are enjoyed by those employed or holding office in the diocese and, where relevant, that reasonable remuneration is provided for all those engaged in the cure of souls;
- (c) the traditions, needs and characteristics of particular parishes; and
- (d) any other aspects of the policies of the diocesan synod to which the synod has requested the Committee to have regard in discharging its responsibilities.

4. Membership of Diocesan Mission and Pastoral Committee

The members of the Diocesan Mission and Pastoral Committee shall be the members from time to time of the Bishop's Council and the Chair shall be the Bishop.

5. Power of delegation

The Committee may delegate any of its functions to sub-committees except its duty under section 6(5) or 21(4) of the 2011 Measure to afford opportunity to incumbents of benefices and vicars in team ministries to meet the committee itself and its functions under Schedule 4 to that Measure regarding compensation of clergy.

6. Appointment of sub-committees

The Committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees and to appoint to them persons who are not members of the Committee.

7. Calling in of sub-committee decisions

Where a proposal is agreed by a sub-committee and a majority of the elected members of the sub-committee voted against such proposal, any two of them may give notice to the secretary that they require the proposal to be considered and voted upon by the diocesan Committee.

Where such notice is given, no action on the proposal shall be taken unless and until it is approved by the diocesan Committee.

8. Power to amend

The Secretary shall have the power to make minor drafting amendments to proposals in agreement with the Church Commissioners and the relevant archdeacon. A written report of all such amendments to proposals shall be circulated for the next meeting of the appropriate sub-committee.

9. Reporting

The Committee shall prepare a report of its work once a year for both the Bishop's Council and for the Diocesan Synod and shall also present annually to the Commissioners a report on the exercise of its functions under section 3(3)(e) of the Mission and Pastoral Measure 2011.

9. Meetings

Full Committee: to meet at least twice every year

Sub-committees: each sub-committee shall meet at least three times a year

10. Quorum

The quorum shall be one-third of members. Subject to that, the Committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership or any defect in its composition.

11. Officers

The Committee and sub-committees shall be serviced by the Secretary to the Diocesan Mission and Pastoral Committee.

12. Advisers

The Committee and any sub-committee shall have power to appoint persons who have appropriate expertise whether or not as members of another body to provide advice on any of their functions.
